The boats started very well together, the Arrow, like a shark amongst the minnows, causing many of the fleet to scurry away at to deal effectively by its own officers with her approach without giving any thoughts to right-of-way.

It was a best up to the Lycemun mark. and the Arrow and Erica evon went to the front into first and second places, which and second places in turns, and having a set to apart from the rest of the fleet. Payne, Dolphin, Dart and Ladubird, and a very fine race, She, with her time allowance, being well in it with them. and, except the Cam and Seabreeze, gave up on the last round. The Lycemon Mark boat was rounded by the Arrow 39 accords in front of minutes later by the Dolphin, with Payne. Dart and Ladybird close up and the other boats at varying intervals. Dolphin, not usually carrying a spinnaker, reuted one the order was Arrow, Erica, Payne. Dolphin, Dart, Ladybird, Stella, Elfin, Cam. She, etc. The wind on the reach to the part of the course, and the Arrow increased her lead of Erica to over two minutes. being about 7 minutes in front of Payne Bay and rounding the mark boat with a lead of half a minute. The way the Krica went to windward in the fresh breeze was simply marvellous. The Dolphin and Pagne had a splendid fight no to the markboat, with Dart as a Ladybird hanging on to their skirts; She was well in the second flight up to this point, and well within her time of anything but Erica, but in the run and reach down the bigger boats went away from her. After rounding the markboat the Arrow ran into first place and headed the procession to the tinish, and the line was crossed by the boats as follows :-
